

Withdrawal form

Customers who are consumers can withdraw within 14 days of concluding the contract without providing reasons and without complying with any formal requirements. Consumers can use this withdrawal form for this purpose or simply declare their withdrawal to World4You Internet Services GmbH in any other way. In order to meet the withdrawal deadline, the customer needs to send their message that they wish to exercise their right to withdraw before the withdrawal deadline. In case of a withdrawal, any payments already made will be reimbursed.

If the customer asked World4You Internet Services GmbH before concluding the contract to commence contract performance before the withdrawal period ends and the customer withdraws nonetheless, the customer must pay a proportionate amount of the agreed fee to World4You Internet Services GmbH. If World4You Internet Services GmbH has already rendered full performance of the contract, the right of withdrawal ceases to apply and the full fee become payable.

If you want to withdraw from the contract, please complete this form and return it to World4You Internet Services GmbH by email or post. You can find out contact details at <https://www.world4you.com/en/imprint> .
